

The Fish Bowl

School story Curriculum

Once upon a time, a small boy
had a desire to be a fish.

He had seen fishes in a fish bowl at a friend's place. One big fish was golden in colour.

The boy had golden eyes and he could hear the fishes speak
to him.

They said, "swim with us,"

However much the boy tried,
he could not turn into a fish.

As a result, he became a marine biologist.
